

Upcoming publication

Posting of workers before national courts

Edited by

Zane Rasnača, Magdalena Bernaciak

To be published by the European Trade Union Institute (ETUI),
December 2019

To download this book for free visit www.etui.org/Publications

To order copies, please contact Veerle Raes: +32 (0)2 224 05 05;
vraes@etui.org

Main questions

- Overview of national case law and debates on posting of workers within the European Union
- Comparative study covering 11 Member States
- The first and only in-depth study on this topic

Authors of chapters

Michael Doherty,
Zef Even,
Heiner Fechner,
Yaroslava Genova,
Barbara Kresal,
Natalie Videbæk Munkholm,
Marta Otto, Barbara Palli, Duarte Abrunhosa e Sousa and
Juha Tuovinen

Contents

- Introduction (Zane Rasnača, Magdalena Bernaciak)
- Chapter 1: Bulgarian case law on the posting of workers in the framework of the provision of services in EU Member States (Yaroslava Genova)
- Chapter 2: Posting before national courts: Denmark (Natalie Videbaek Munkholm)
- Chapter 3: Posted workers before national courts in Finland (Juha Tuovinen)
- Chapter 4: Posting before national courts in France (Barbara Palli)
- Chapter 5: Posting from and to Germany (Heiner Fechner)
- Chapter 6: Posting before national courts: Ireland (Michael Doherty)
- Chapter 7: Posting before Latvian courts: it's all about the money (Zane Rasnača)
- Chapter 8: Posting before the courts in the Netherlands (J.H. Even)
- Chapter 9: Posting of workers before national courts: Poland (Marta Otto)
- Chapter 10: Posting before national courts – The Portuguese overview (Duarte Abrunhosa e Sousa)
- Chapter 11: Posting of workers before national courts – Slovenia (Barbara Kresal)
- Conclusion (Zane Rasnača, Magdalena Bernaciak)

The ETUI is financially supported by the European Union.

etui.